Restore Viber messages only Did you accidentally send a message to the wrong person? A while back, I was using Viber to chat with my friends and accidentally sent a wrong message to someone. This got me into a panic mode as I wanted to delete that message right away. Thankfully, after some quick research, I was able to learn how to delete Viber messages pretty easily. Let's face it - there are times when we all encounter a similar situation and want to delete group or individual messages. Well, to help you do the same, I have come up with this ultimate guide on how to delete Viber messages in a jiffy. Part 1: How to Delete Viber Group Messages? Apart from individual chats, Viber also lets us create groups as well. Therefore, before I teach you how to delete Viber messages on a personal chat, I will cover the same for groups. Ideally, there are two ways to do this. You can either just delete a message sent by you to a group or leave and delete the group as well. 1.1 Delete Viber messages without leaving a group Step 1. Launch Viber on your smartphone and open any group where you have earlier sent the message. Step 2. Tap and hold the messages that you wish to get rid of and select the "Delete" option. You can also select multiple messages and tap on the Delete option. Step 3. This will give you an option if you wish to delete a message for yourself or everyone. Just tap on the option of your choice and delete the message for just you or everyone in the group. 1.2 Delete Viber messages and leave the group Step 1. Simply launch Viber on your phone and tap on the "Leave and Delete" option, and confirm your choice. Part 2: How to Delete Viber Messages from a Conversation? Besides group chats, we can also delete Viber messages on individual conversations as well. You can delete certain messages, clear an entire chat, or delete the entire Viber message history as well. 2.1 Delete selective Viber chats Step 1. Launch Viber and open any chat on which you have the messages that you wish to delete. Step 2. Long press and hold a message to get various options. You can just select multiple messages as well. Step 3. From here, choose to delete the message and it will be disappeared from the thread. 2.2 Delete the entire conversation Step 1. If you have an iPhone, then just launch Viber and delete the chat that you wish to get rid of. Tap on the Delete option from here and confirm your choice. Step 2. Android users can just launch Viber and hold the chat that they wish to delete. As several options would appear on a pop-up, tap on "Delete" and confirm to get rid of the conversation. 2.3 Delete Viber Message History Step 1. Launch Viber and go to its menu from the side. Now, browse to its Settings > Calls and Messages. Step 2. Tap on the "Clear Message History" option and confirm your choice to delete the entire message history on Viber. Part 3. How to Delete Viber Messages 'You Didn't Want to Send'? If you have accidentally sent a message to someone on Viber, then you can delete the message entirely from the conversation. Once you have removed the message, the actual content would be deleted and the app will display a prompt that the message has been deleted. To learn how to delete Viber messages that you didn't want to send, follow these steps. Step 1. Firstly, just launch Viber and go to the conversation or group where you have sent a message by mistake. Step 2. Tap and hold the message that you wish to delete to get more options. You can also tap and select multiple messages to delete. Step 3. From the available options, tap on "Delete for everyone" so that the message would be erased from the chat. Step 4. The selected message would be removed and a prompt stating that the message has been deleted instead. You may also be interested in How to Find/Delete/Restore Viber Backup in Google Drive? If a similar query about deleted Viber chats has brought you here, then you are about to get it resolved right away. You might already know that Viber is a freely available cross-platform application that is used to chat with our contacts and do voice/video calls as well. Although the app is pretty popular and secure, users often complain about getting their messages deleted. Thankfully, we can use Viber's native and third-party solutions to easily restore our chats. In this guide, I will tell you how to retrieve deleted Viber messages in 2 different ways. Try it Free Try it Free safe & secure Part 1: How to Restore Deleted Viber Messages from a Previous Backup? If you have already taken a backup of your Viber chats on your Android or iPhone, then you won't face any trouble restoring it. By default, Viber lets us link our Google Drive or iCloud account to our Android/iOS device to save our chats. In case of an unwanted loss of your chats, you can simply restore this previously taken backup to your Android/iOS device. For Android Devices Android device users can simply connect the Viber app to their Google account. This will let them back up their chats to Google Drive, which you can later restore. It will include their Viber messages, group chats, attachments, and other app data. Step 1: Back up your Viber chats Firstly, make sure that you have already taken a backup of your Viber chats on Google Drive. To do this, launch Viber and go to its Settings from its menu. Now, browse to Settings > Viber Backup and tap on the "Backup" option. You can also connect your Viber account to your Google Drive from here. Step 2: Restore Viber chats If you have got your Viber messages deleted, then reinstall the application and connect your phone to the same Google account. While setting up your Viber account, you will get an option to restore an existing backup. If not, then you can go to its Settings > Viber Backup and tap on the "Restore" option. View the details of the previous backup file and tap on the "Restore" button again to get back your Viber messages. For iOS Devices Just like Android devices, we can also backup and recover Viber chat history on iPhones as well. To do this, you need to turn on the iCloud option on your iPhone and link Viber to your iCloud account. Here's how to retrieve deleted messages on Viber. Step 1: Back up Viber messages To save your Viber messages, go to Viber's Settings > Viber Backup and just tap on the "Backup" button. Make sure that you have enough free space on your iCloud to accommodate the Viber backup beforehand. Furthermore, there is also an Auto Backup feature here to automatically backup your Viber messages. Step 2: Restore Viber Backup To restore the existing backup from iCloud to Viber, make sure that your device is connected to the same iCloud account where the backup is stored. Go to its iCloud settings and turn on the iCloud Drive option as well as the Viber app sync feature from here. Afterward, reinstall Viber on your device and link it to the same phone number. The application will automatically detect the presence of an existing backup and will inform you about it. Just tap on the "Restore" button now and maintain a stable internet connection to restore your Viber chats. Part 2: Pro Tip: Backup Viber Messages to PC in case of Data Loss - MobileTrans With the above-mentioned solution, you can learn how to restore deleted Viber messages from a previous iCloud/Google Drive backup. Though, a lot of users don't like to backup their Viber data on the cloud due to low space, security concerns, or any other reason.
